

A SHOW in itself, as it moved up and down the highways between Porterville and San Francisco, aboard two Gene Tharp trucks and trailers, was this Centennial equipment used in the San Francisco cavalcade by the Porterville Centennial committee, Saturday. Included were the stagecoach, the Speedwell car, the caliope, two fire engines and the Confederate cannon. Along with E. L. Beaver's horse van, and the six head of horses used in the Market street parade, about $75,000 worth of equipment rolled in and out of San Francisco. (Farm Tribune photo)

IT HAPPENED in San Francisco during Porterville Centennial hi-jinx, Saturday: Mayor George Christopher, right, presents the key to the city to Porterville Mayor Jack Letsinger; Mayor Christopher receives redwood plaque from Porterville; crusade to repeal women's suffrage is carried to steps of San Francisco city hall; the Confederates fire a cannon salute to stout hearted men of San Francisco.

SHARP EYE, QUICK HAND GETS TURKEY

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 26 — A sharp eye over a gun barrel, a fast hand at games of skill, or just a little plain luck can get you a turkey, Sunday, at annual turkey shoot being staged by the Southern Tulare County Sportsmen's association at the sportsmen's clubhouse on east Putnam avenue just beyond the Rocky Hill arena. Shooting will start at 9 a.m. and continue until dark; funds raised by the turkey shoot are used by the association in its fish and game conservation work.

CENTENNIAL PAPER OUT NOVEMBER 9

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 26 — Centennial edition of The Farm Tribune — being published this year in place of our annual Progress edition — will be out on November 9, featuring Centennial memories in pictures and many special ads.

In order to cover the entire Centennial year, a special supplement will be published with the regular edition the following week, covering activities of Veterans' Homecoming day, November 11.

The Centennial edition will go to regular subscribers; single copies will sell for 25 cents.

Have Ball Team, Need Money - Meeting Tonight

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 26 — Whether or not Porterville has a Class C, professional baseball team in the California league in 1962 will probably be decided at a public meeting in the Porterville city hall, called for 7:30 p.m., tonight, Thursday. All interested fans in the area are invited; a decision must be reached prior to November 1.

The situation is that the New York Mets, to be managed by (Continued On Page 9)

BIG DOIN'S TO HONOR CITY FOUNDER

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 26 — There'll be big doin's in Porterville, come Saturday, what with the Centennial committee and Porterville merchants joinin' forces to whoop things up from 7 a.m. until dark in observance of Porter Putnam day.

Serious tribute will be paid to the memory of Porterville's founder, Royal Porter Putnam, in a short program starting at 12:45 at site of the original Putnam (Continued On Page 2)

YOUNGSTERS' BUCKAROO DEO SUNDAY; JACK POT ROPING DURING MORNING

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 26 — Youngsters of the community will get a chance at rodeo competition Sunday afternoon at the Rocky Hill arena when the Clark Brothers, famous clowns of the professional rodeo circuit, stage their Buckaroo deo under auspices of the Orange Belt Saddle club.

With Shetland ponies and calves providing the opposition, boys and girls can compete in age groups set up from eight through 16 years. Events include: Bareback riding, calf roping, calf riding, ribbon roping, barrel racing, steer riding and team roping. Contestants sign up at the arena on Sunday before noon; the show starts at 1:30 p.m.

Buckles and trophies will be awarded in the various events; all-around winner for the day will receive a buckle. Contestants must pay a $3.00 fee to cover cost; parents must accompany contestants, and sign a release.

The Clark Brothers will entertain with clown antics; Hoke Evetts will announce the show. In a recent issue of Saturday Evening Post a picture story appeared on the Clark Brothers and their Buckaroo deo.

Contestants for queen of the Buckaroo deo will be judged at 12:30 p.m.; jack pot roping is set for Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

Adult admission to the Buckaroo deo is $1.00; students, 50 cents; pre-school age children will be admitted free.

CLOWNS PLAY MONDAY NIGHT

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 26 — The famous Harlem Clowns will bring their bag of entertainment and fancy tricks along when they play a Porterville high school faculty team in the high school gymnasium Monday night at 8 p.m.

Editorial Comment

DO YOU WANT BASEBALL?

The chips are down, in so far as professional, Class C baseball is concerned for Porterville in 1962, and whether or not this community picks up those chips depends on response during a public meeting called for 7:30 p.m., tonight, Thursday, in the Porterville city hall.

A firm offer has been made by the newly organized New York Mets, that will be managed by Casey Stengel, to place a farm team in Porterville next season if the community comes up with the necessary where-with-all (money) and at a baseball meeting in San Francisco last Saturday, Eddie Mulligan, president of the California league, assured Gib Gimbel, of Porterville, that there will be a place in the California league for Porterville if the community is ready to go.

Following a meeting of interested citizens Tuesday noon, Gimbel set the community meeting for Thursday night, since a decision must be made before November 1.

At this meeting the entire baseball proposition will be explained, including local responsibility in financing a professional baseball team — then it will be up to people of the community — the entire community not just the City of Porterville — to decide whether or not professional baseball comes in for the 1962 season.

Major key is money — so if you are a baseball fan, and if you want Class C professional baseball in Porterville next year, come on down to the city hall tonight and bring money — either cash or your checkbook.

HUMANE ANIMAL control is shown here as Ted Peter, Animal Control officer of the Tulare County Humane society, loads two dogs into one of the new pick-up vans now operating throughout Tulare county. Two vans are now in operation and the third is being prepared. At the present time the Humane society's contract is only with Tulare county and pick-ups are made only in unincorporated areas. However the cities of Porterville, Tulare, Dinuba, and Woodlake are discussing contracts with the society. Animals picked up in these vans will soon be housed in the new, modern Animal Shelter almost completed near the Visalia Municipal airport. (Meryl Darsey photo)

FISHING LAWS ARE ON AGENDA

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 26 — A review of proposed angling regulation changes for 1962 is set for a public meeting of the California Fish and Game commission, November 2, at 10 a.m., in room 4061 of the Employment building in Sacramento.

California late summer potato crop is forecast at 2,541,000 hundredweight, five per cent below 1960 and 24 per cent below average.

Fall potato crop is forecast in California at 5,720,000 hundredweight, 33 per cent above 1960 and 41 per cent above average.

Festivities for the day will start at 7 a.m., when breakfast will be served from the Tulare County Cow Belle chuck wagon at Harrison and Main street, where Guthrie's Riders will have a cattle camp set up.

Breakfast will also be served by Hi-4-H club members in the city hall park.

Cow Belle chuck wagon will move down the street to serve lunch at Oak and Main; during the day 10 food booths, operated by various organizations, will be spotted along Main street between Olive and Cleveland.

During the morning there will be calf roping and branding at the Guthrie cow camp; old time fiddlers will be on the street during the day; there will be demonstrations of horse shoeing; a team harnessing contest; horse-shoe pitching; square dancing by the Springville Hill Hoppers; competition with a bull whip; free rides for children on Centennial vehicles, and other entertainment.

Citizens of the community are invited to come to town in Centennial dress and promenade on Main street — all day; horses and horse-drawn vehicles only will be allowed on Main between Cleveland and Olive.

General chairmen for the Centennial part of Porter Putnam day is Domer Power; general chairman for merchant participation is Judie Pratt, chairman of the Porterville Merchants' committee.

OF YANKS AND REDS AND CLASS C IN PORTERVILLE

AFTER THE YANKEES AND THE Reds went through the motions in the recent World Series, we thought that baseball could be put in mothballs for the winter. In fact, there are some so unkind as to intimate that both teams were in mothballs, even as they played the series.

BOTH TEAMS WORKED ON elemental strategy. That is: hit the ball over the fence or don't bother to hit it. Most of the players followed the latter course. Only excitement was created by Senor Chacon, a second baseman for the Cincinnati. Besides being handicapped playing for the Reds, the Senor is also hampered by speaking only Spanish. Possibly that is why he deviated from the script. Senor Chacon was kicking up dirt around third base, waiting for someone to hit a home run, when Mr. Howard, who catches for the Yankees, let the ball roll away from him. The Senor started racing for home. The coach shouted, "Wait". Chacon said, "No speaka English" and kept running. He made it too, though the surprised Mr. Howard fell on him in a very unmanly way. This was the beginning and ending of excitement in the series.

WITH SUCH A LACKLUSTER series fresh in the public mind, we assumed that sports' lovers would turn their attention to livelier fields such as football. (We'll get Tulare next year.) However, there is a fraternity hereabouts known as the "Lovers of Class C Baseball". This devoted group is dedicated to the proposition that Porterville needs Class C baseball and vice versa. They spend a great deal of time, thought and persuasive power on this proposition. We read in the papers only the other day that overtures are being made back and forth between this group and the Big Leagues to put a farm team in Porterville.

WE HAVE BEEN ACCUSED of being biased about this whole thing and not giving the Class C proponents a fair hearing in this column. To be fair: they state that the advent of Class C ball hereabouts will cost the town nothing, will bring prosperity and will not interfere with the recreation program.

UNFORTUNATELY, SOME of the citizens can't get these fundamentals firmly in mind. They hear noises that indicate that the lighting is going to be improved in the ball park some $32,000 worth. This isn't walking around money, and they suspect, and rightly, that the taxpayer will ultimately foot the bill. This expenditure naturally makes the park attractive for Class C ball. As a very lively summer baseball program is now being run in the park, these citizens also suspect that Class C ball will definitely interfere with this recreation activity.

FRIENDS OF CLASS C BASEBALL state that the present lights, which have been unanimously voted inadequate, can be moved to another field for summer recreation baseball. This is consistent. We can then have both inadequate lights and an inadequate field for the recreation program.

PORTER PUTNAM DAY BREAKFAST BY HI-4-H GROUP

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 26 — Plans to operate a breakfast booth on Porterville's Main street in front of the city hall on Porter Putnam day, Saturday, were made by members of the Porterville Hi-4-H section at first meeting of the year held recently in Murry park. Coffee, hot chocolate, donuts, hot snails and rolls will be served.

Planned also was a Halloween party, October 28, with members to meet at Jamison stadium at 7 p.m. for a hayride and weiner roast.

Reports were given by Dennis Dunbar, on livestock at the recent Tulare county fair, and by Arlo Awbrey, on a county Hi-4-H meeting in Woodlake on October 4.

The following appointments were made: Don Awbrey and Taryann McGivern, reporters; Diana Ferrer and Donna Cramer, co-chairmen of the refreshment committee, which also includes Joyce Classen, Susan Callison, and Sharon Hockuli.

Dennis Dunbar and Sparky Noble, co-chairmen of recreation, with this committee also including Vic Childs, Richard Callison, Arlo Awbrey and Mini McGivern; John and Ramona Smith will be in charge of the education committee; adult leader for the group is Roy Nesbit.

Picking of sweet corn is well underway in the Kern county areas of Arvin and Wheeler Ridge.

CHAPEL CHIMES

By
Rev. N. J.
Thompson

On her return from Sunday school, little Mabel said, "Mom, I have become God's child."

"How, dear?" asked her mother.

"I made peace," Mabel announced triumphantly. "Betty said Ann was naughty. But I didn't tell Ann what Betty said about her. Am I a peace maker, Mom?"

"Sure you are, dear. You are a peace maker — and a child of God."

Is this true? No, indeed! Murderous gangsters, crooked politicians, and dishonest businessmen, often promote peace with their opponents—for purely selfish reasons. By no stretch of the imagination, can we say their glib tongues and their craze for power and money impress God so favorably. He adopts them into His family of saints!

How, then, can a person become a child of God?

Let's put it this way. A sailing ship was driven on the rocks by a storm. Among the passengers was Albert Saunders, who lashed a life preserver on his body, called on God for help, and leaped overboard. What saved Mr. Saunders' life?

In one sense, he depended on God. In another sense, he saved himself. Actually, both his personal action and his dependence on God saved his life.

Likewise, salvation depends on

Miss Mary Beth Washburn and Bernie Goldsmith were married in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bryant, in Porterville.

The bride's gown was ballerina length nylon chiffon and lace with a fitted bodice and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore a face veil and carried a white prayer book.

Gloria Hodge was maid of honor and best man was John Goldsmith. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harding Washburn of Springville. The groom is the son of Daniel Goldsmith of Visalia.

The Springville Hobby Club met in the patio at the home of Mrs. Florence Fitzpatrick for their October meeting.

On arriving, the group was served jello, ice cream, cookies, coffee, tea or punch, followed by a business meeting and a display of baby blankets, made by the members as the project for October; also several Christmas gift ideas were exchanged. Two members, Mrs. Carmah Hodges and Miss Lucille Higgins, reported winning ribbons and cash for their entries in the Tuare Fair: Carmah for her hand-woven articles and Lucille for her photography. Annual election was held and Lucille Higgins was re-elected president; Winnie Gage was elected vice-president, replacing Mrs. Bessie Ruby and Mrs. Fitzpatrick was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

ACTION LIKE this is in store for cowboys up to 16 years of age when the famous rodeo clowns, the Clark Brothers, stage their Buckaroo at the Rocky Hill arena on October 29, starting at 1:30 p.m., under auspices of the Orange Belt Saddle club. Queen of the Buckaroo will be selected from among 11 contestants prior to the show at 12:30 p.m.

The November meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Goldie Haggard.

We Only Heard

BY BILL RODGERS

AN UNFORTUNATE situation concerning the proposed retirement plan for employees of the City of Porterville seems to be building up — a situation in which city employees, city councilmen, and some citizens are sort of "choosing up sides."

WE SAY this is unfortunate because the problems involved can be better solved by understanding cooperation rather than by concentrations of pressure.

THERE CAN be no argument as to whether or not a plan will be set up — the people of Porterville, by a substantial city charter amendment vote last April, authorized the city council to establish a retirement plan; this can logically be considered to mean that "the people" favor such a plan.

PROGRESS ON study of possible plans was being made by a citizen's committee, appointed by the mayor and approved by the city council, but this committee blew sky-high in the face of a play by certain council members aimed at the grand-

PANTHERS NEED A FIST — NOT FOUR FINGERS AND A THUMB

Porterville High school's bomb scare of Thursday turned into a Redskin attack in Tulare, Saturday, and the bomb threat did the least damage. The bomb scare gave the kids an unexpected holiday, which they will probably have to make up later, but the Redskins of Tulare High school gave only bad memories.

The Panthers were favored going into the game. The 'Skins were winless in four outings, and a tomahawkless Indian is no threat. The Panthers had won three and dropped one and shown inconsistent offensive power and a big, if somewhat complacent, defense.

Maybe everyone kept waiting for the Tulare eleven to fold. Perhaps someone forgot to distribute the PUHS press clippings. At any rate the Redskins didn't get the word and they refused to fold. End result: Tulare 20, PUHS 14.

The Panthers had some bad breaks. Their tying touchdown was called back by a penalty, and fumbles plagued the local squad all night. But these are mistakes, they are things that winners do not do.

Mental attitude means a lot in football. A team with tough, competitive confidence is hard to beat. This type of team realizes its ability and is all the more unbeatable for it. But what about the team with equal ability and confidence, but lacking in competitiveness? This type of team is likely to arrive at the game, saying, "Here we are. We're good. Look out."

What kind of a team is the PUHS Panthers? As a team they are less than good, they do not make a team effort. There is no team spirit, agreed purpose, or intent. In short, they are a number of individuals playing together on the same football team but not playing as a team. Four fingers and a thumb never knocked a man out, but a fist has.

The Porterville College Pirates suffered a case of the defensive miseries in the second half Saturday night in Jamison Stadium as they blew a half-time lead to drop their fourth game of the season to Taft 26-20.

The only bright spot of the evening was the return to action of flashy Othel Pearson, the Pirates' deep-thinking quarterback.

The Pirate offense looked healthy against the Cougars. The locals had a fine screen pass going for them that suckered the Cougar defense often enough to make them feel foolish.

The Pirates travel to Visalia for the traditional must-win contest with the COS Giants. The Giants are an on-again-off-again outfit with speed to burn. They opened the season by winning two big scores. They then dropped their two first league contests. Last week they bounced back to hang the first loss of the season on tough Reedley.

We look for the Pirates to play heads up football in this "big game" and, taking an optimistic attitude, we will even predict a win. We think that the PC coaching staff has a few cards up its sleeve and will have the boys high for this one.

Far West Will Continue To Work For Greater Cotton Acreage Despite Decision To Cut 1962 Allotment

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 26 — J. Russell Kennedy, general manager of Calcot, Ltd., says that the far west will continue to strive for greater cotton acreage, despite Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman's decision to cut the national allotment roughly two percent in 1962.

Kennedy voiced this determined view following Freeman's recent announcement that the 1962 upland cotton allotment will be cut 356,000 acres to 18,102,000 acres.

California will lose approximately 16,000 acres if the far west participates in the national allotment the same as this year. Arizona will lose around 7,200 acres. The cut means roughly a 50,000-bale loss for far western cotton.

"The far west can sell much more cotton than we're presently allowed to produce", said Kennedy, adding that California and Arizona have an unprecedented demand for their number-one agricultural crop.

Kennedy also commented that a trend of forced acreage reduction could eventually be disastrous for many growers, as cotton has become the real balance wheel in California and Arizona agriculture. "Any decline in acreage is bound to adversely affect the stabilizing role cotton has played so successfully" he said.

The Calcot official said an increase in cotton acreage was vitally needed for 1962 to keep national stocks from dwindling to dangerously low proportions. He estimated a 10 percent increase in acreage was needed to provide sufficient cotton to supply the demand next year without adding anything to the carryover.

"Acreage cuts will injure not only the producer, who will be forced to place high fixed cost land into crops already in oversupply, but it will affect every segment of the cotton industry. Scarcity of cotton forces prices upward to the point where textile mills are forced to switch to synthetics. It also encourages increased production in other lands", Kennedy said.

"We are disappointed in the acreage announcement, but we shall not relent in our efforts to secure recognition and definite consideration of our cotton acreage problems", he said.

AT PRESENT things are sort of on dead center, however the council has voted to hire an actuarial to assist in study of possible retirement plans, with final decision on who this actuarial will be coming up probably after November 11.

IT IS our opinion that from here on there should be joint participation in retirement plan study: Of course members of the city council will have to dig in; city employees should be represented; interested citizens should present their ideas.

BUT BEFORE any future study sessions can get out of the debating society stage, a couple of points must be firmly established: 1. Just what does a good retirement system include, generally; and 2. What would be an ideal system for Porterville.

ONCE THIS is determined — and in the field of theory this determination should not be difficult — then it is time to get down to the finer and more difficult problems, solution of which will no doubt involve a few compromises centering around benefits vs. costs, and philosophies involved.

WE WOULD further suggest that first efforts be directed toward points of agreement; after that, points of controversy. Finally, it will be up to city council members to say to the people they represent, and to city employees, "Here is your plan."

WHEN THIS point is reached, it will be a serene or stormy point depending upon how things are handled up to that time. Best chance for serenity at that final point rests upon an analysis of the problem, the establishing of points of agreement, then discussion, not pressure, directed toward solution of the points of controversy.

WATER TO COVER HISTORIC SITE

SENATOR KUCHEL OPENS NEW OFFICE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26 — U.S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel has opened a year-around California office in the Federal Government's 100 McAllister Street building in San Francisco. The San Francisco office will be directed by Miss Irma Glasser, who has been with Senator Kuchel's Washington, D.C. staff more than four years.

YOUR LEGISLATOR AT WORK!

Senator

J. Howard Williams

32nd District
 California State Legislature

Legislative issues of considerable importance will be scrutinized by the 13 Senate fact-finding committees during the interim between now and the 1963 general session. The Senate rules committee has released a list of 130 measures which have been assigned to the various groups for study and report during the period.

Heaviest workload was handed over to the judiciary committee, to which were sent 37 measures of all kinds, bills, constitutional amendments and resolutions. The education group drew second place with 13 measures. Third was revenue and taxation, with 12. The business and commerce committee was fourth, with 11. Water resources was next, with eight measures.

All of the remaining eight committees were assigned some measures to review. Agriculture, governmental administration, labor and welfare, natural resources, public health, and transportation are fields in which hearings on proposed measures will be held.

In the judiciary field the bills with perhaps the widest interest are those which would enact a new Uniform Commercial Code, paralleling similar statutes of other states. Every person using commercial paper of any kind would be affected to a greater or lesser extent by these bills. Another important measure would give the judicial council power to make rules for procedure in trial courts, under supervision of the Legislature. Two other measures of considerable interest would require the attorney-general to investigate and make public written reports on all cases in which a peace officer kills a person allegedly in line of duty, or is accused of using unnecessary force in taking a person into custody.

Several significant bills will be taken up by the education committee. One would appropriate $5 million to start a program of "self-help scholarships" for qualified high school students, under which they would be employed by the natural resources department during their last two summer vacations, with part of their pay credited to a scholarship fund for later use at college. A series of bills would further limit use of school facilities and personnel in partisan political activity. A proposed constitutional amendment would lower the vote required to approve a school bond issue from the present two-thirds margin to a sixty percent majority.

Measures to be studied by the revenue and taxation committee will attract great interest. One would set up a state license fee, similar to that for motor vehicles, for all boats using California waters, to replace all local property taxes now paid. Another would impose a new two-cent tax per gallon on all aircraft fuel, and would earmark the proceeds for airport construction. Two Assembly bills will also be reviewed by this group, both relating to the complicated problem of taxing inventories of unprocessed materials.

The business and commerce committee has a broad range of topics to study. Everything from hypnotism to health insurance for farm workers to new ways of naming notaries public are on its agenda.

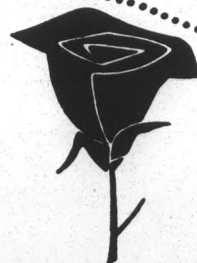

Newspapers all over the state will carry news as to the dates and places of meetings scheduled by the various committees on all these important topics. Those of you concerned with particular measures should plan to make your views known at hearings on them. As I have written before in this column, we can forge the best legislation for all only if we are told your problems and ideas.

CROSS COMPLIANCE IN FEED GRAIN PROGRAM EXPLAINED BY ASC CHAIRMAN

VISALIA, Oct. 26 — There is cross compliance between the 1962 barley feed grain program and the 1962 feed grain program for corn and grain sorghums, Charles Slaughter, chairman, Tulare County ASC committee, stated this week.

Under the barley feed grain program the barley producer earns a special diversion payment by reducing his acreage of barley and diverting the acreage to a conservation use. The diverted acres must represent an additional amount over the farm's average acreage devoted to a conservation use in 1959 and 1960.

If a barley producer also produces corn or grain sorghums on the same farm, he must make sure that the farm does not produce more acres of barley, or corn and grain sorghums, than the average acreage of such crops produced in 1959 and 1960.

If the producer fails to meet these cross compliance features, he is not eligible to earn payments for diversion of barley acreage to conserving uses. Participation in the special agricultural conservation program is necessary in order to be eligible for price support on the 1962 barley crop. Furthermore, acreage diverted from the production of barley under the 1962 barley feed grain program must be devoted to an approved conservation use in order to comply with program provisions. He also pointed out that such diverted acreage must represent an increase of the acreage on the farm normally devoted to conservation uses.

Diverted acres may not be grazed after the final sign-up date for spring seeded crops and a crop must not be harvested from them. Weeds, rodents, and insects must be controlled on the acreage as directed by the ASC County committee.

Crops of castor beans, guar, safflower, sunflower or sesame

STATE'S 115 IRRIGATION DISTRICTS REPORT INCOME OF OVER $50 MILLION

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 26—The total income of California's 115 irrigation districts reached a new high of $50,546,933 last year, State Controller Alan Cranston has reported. The 1959 total income of the districts was $49,754,756.

Expenditures in 1960 amounted to $41,721,834; this was less than the $43,243,057 spent in 1959.

Long term indebtedness of the districts as of the end of 1960 was $266,444,972, compared with $199,732,156 for the previous year.

California irrigation districts include a total of 4,557,656 acres and have a total assessed valuation of $393,870,473. They are located in 32 of the state's 58 counties.

The greatest concentration of districts is in the San Joaquin Valley counties of Tulare, Fresno, San Joaquin and Kings, but the largest district by far is the Imperial Irrigation district in Imperial county; it contains 908,195 acres.

SAN FRANCISCO'S Market street has no doubt seen larger parades, but few if any noisier ones, as the Porterville Centennial delegation moved from the Ferry building to the San Francisco city hall last Saturday morning. Photos show the units of the Centennial Cavalcade enroute - the old caliope, the Centennial fire engine, the Porterville junior chamber of commerce fire engine, Ed. Jones' 1913 Speedwell, the Breakfast Lion's Confederate cannon crew and Dixieland band, and the four-horse Centennial stage - all carrying their contingents of Bushfaces and DOLLS. There was a constant barrage of music and pistol shots, and a few thousand people along the street knew that Porterville had brought its Centennial celebration to the City by the Golden Gate.

Upper Laurel lake in Mono county has been planted with Golden trout from Golden Trout creek in Tulare county.

From Daybell
Nursery
By John

These cool mornings leave no doubt that winter is coming along with frost, wind, and, we hope, rain. Therefore you should be preparing for it now instead of some frosty December morning. You probably won't but you should.

Begonias, coleus, and other tender things you wish to save should be potted so they can be moved indoors. We mention this because we sell all sizes of pots, tubs, and other stuff and would like to get rid of them. We also sell peat moss and planter mixes to give the plants a fighting chance against indoor conditions.

Young trees, tall shrubs, and tree roses need to be staked or otherwise supported in order to keep them upright until spring. If tied with string or cloth the tie should be checked to make sure it isn't rotting away. Top heavy trees such as evergreen elm may need extra support or even a guy wire or two. We sell redwood stakes and plant ties which makes it unnecessary to use the TV antenna or tear a board off the house for this purpose.

In order that we can winterize our own gardens we will close on Sundays starting in November. We hope this will give us a chance to rest and be that much nicer to you the other days of the week. Visitors always welcome on "E" St. North of Olive.

Have Ball Team

Casey Stengel, have offered a franchise to Porterville; Eddie Mulligan, president of the California league, has stated there will be an opening, since the league is planning to expand from six to eight teams in 1962.

Principal problem involves money; if there are sufficient baseball fans in the community who are willing to contribute, a team can be had. Since a decision must be made without delay, persons attending the meeting tonight are asked to be prepared to put up the cash during the meeting if they want to see professional baseball in Porterville.

CENTENNIAL FEATURE

station formerly located on the present city hall site; it is this engine that members of the Porterville junior chamber of commerce have reconditioned and that is now being used in Centennial parades. On the old engines are Guy Swisher and William Lowery.

ROBERT E. Hansen, center, national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, who was honored in Porterville the evening of October 11 when he spoke at a meeting of area and state VFW officials at Post 2001 hall. At left is Clarence Leinweber, commander of Post 2001; at right is Orville Lofton, of Porterville, now serving as commander of the VFW Department of California. Lower photos show the national commander being presented with a caricature in appropriate Centennial style by Lola Wonka, and Al Whitfield, representing the county VFW council, presenting County Recorder Walter Sunkel with a flag set in appreciation of his work with veterans.
